

HELTA International Conference 1 September 2018

ENGLISH AT WORK CONFERENCE FOR IN-COMPANY TEACHERS IN NORTHERN EUROPE

Berufliche Schule für Medien & Kommunikation, Eulenkamp 46, HAMBURG

PROGRAMME

(Registration deadline 19 August. Further details: www.helta.de)

08:30–09:30	REGISTRATION
09:30–09:35	OPENING Andreas Grundtvig, HELTA Chair
09:35–11:05	PLENARY TALK Ian Badger , Taking a pragmatic approach to teaching English for the workplace

11:05–11:30 COFFEE/TEA / Foyer

11:30–12:30	PARALLEL SESSIONS – Block 1
	Sara Bruun - Make your students interested in their future Liz Joliffe - Coaching into Motivation Evan Frendo - Teaching accommodation strategies Suzanne Vetter-M’Caw – Personalising Business Topics and Getting Learners to Talk

12:30–14:00 LUNCH – Provided by HELTA / Canteen

14:00–14:30	PARALLEL SESSIONS – Block 2
	Helen Waldron - Bhutan, consensus and collectivity Wilton Mills - Introduction to teaching English online Vincent Wongaiham-Petersen - Press „Release“ and GO! Jim Faulkner - Aspects of Contract Language

14:30–15:00 COFFEE / TEA + CAKE / Foyer

15:00–16:00	PARALLEL SESSIONS – Block 3
	Bill Mascull - Teaching Business English: Creating your own exercises Julie Wallis - Managers, Leaders and Listening Skills Paul Dummett - Promoting clear expression Michelle Hunter & Ben Dobbs - A-Z Coaching in the Global BE Classroom

16:00–16:15 BREAK

16:15–17:15 PARALLEL SESSIONS – Block 4

Mandy Welfare - Catering to lower-level business English classes
Susan Holden & Andreas Grundtvig - The native and non-native teacher debate
Rob Szabó - But how do we show ROI?
Simona Petrescu - What makes good writing in a professional setting?

17:15 CLOSING & RAFFLE (in aid of Teachers4Schools ♡)

Cornelsen

Eaquals

Klett

macmillan education

Pilgrims

Hueber

Express Publishing

NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC LEARNING

CAMBRIDGE EXAMINATIONS
CENTRE HAMBURG (DE007)